ELEGANT NEW UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT

The Redwood City Undertaking Company has completed the interior arrangement of its parlors at 33 Broadway, next door to the Democrat office. The proprietors, Geo. W. Tinney and John E. Layng, have spared neither time nor expense in carefully planning and furnishing their establishment.

Their office is in the front of the building, to the right of which is located a private room or office provided for quietness and rest. This room is appropriately furnished.

Off the main hallway is a commodious funeral chapel with rich furnishings, carpets and drapery which has a tendency to cheer one in the trying and solemn presence of death. The use of this chapel is given without cost.

Messrs. Tinney and Layng are well suited to their profession, being kindly and courteous, sympathetic and generous. It is predicted that they will meet with success in Redwood City.

Jos. Cassaretto suffered a painful injury Monday, while working on the White Oaks tract. He was reversing the electric power pump and his hand becoming caught, the middle finger was torn out.

Mrs. Louise Geselbracht, mother of Mrs. C. H. Stevens of this city, passed away at her home in Chicago on Monday, April 30, just twenty-four hours after the arrival of her daughter from Redwood. City. The deceased was an old resident of Chicago and aged 82 years.

Glimpses of Joaquin Miller.

BY WM. LASWELL

A waif was cast in Willamette's vale
Without resource; nor knew a trail
That lead by fortunes way.
Some mission his genius would invite
With small regard for moral right,
If the factors he could sway.

His first adventure was scarcely spent
When he ran atilt his natural bent;
In the shades of erratic haze
He broke the law, its powers withstood,
And strove, by gross ambition wooed,
To vindicate his craze.

He grasped the law, at a single bound.
Was with the judicial ermine crowned.
With prospects bright before
He now betakes himself to song,
And by his lyric charms the throng;
The poet's measured lore.

He now discurd his gentler mien,
Conjures some nymph to go between
The singer and his lay;
By a sure portend the adventurer bold
By the critic throng must now be told
To swing some other way.

He wets his sails with foam and spray,
To get where letters swoop and sway;
Nor turn their votaries down;
The throng whose hearts his genius charms
Received their bard with outstretched arms
As a star but newly found.

He hies him now to the seagirt land,
That some new vision he might expand
That ope's the door of fame,
By taking legends from the scroll of time
And clothing them in an epic rhyme,
Add luster to his name.

Now the Elite pitched another play
For the wanderer could no longer stay
Monitions bade him come.
When gathered in their polished lair
He took a bearskin for a chair
And claimed his share of room.

He faces 'bout for the golden strand
To retake life where it began
And failed to get reward.
He plants his banner just on the height
Where fancy took its initial flight
The mountains sun kissed sward.

Now he grasps the neglected lyre
And seeks to rouse the latent fire
That once bestired his soul.
But as his strength is on the wane
His new device the sacred land
Is the summing of the whole.

He seems abashed to look above
Or grasp the fact of celestial love
Or seek the Heavenly land.
When the time had come he must expire
He looked ascance for something higher
Angles take my hand.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Clifford J. Owen, who was at one time managing editor of the San Jose Mercury and who was long regarded as one of the ablest newspaper managers of the Pacific Coast, has retired from the newspaper field, and will devote himself to the real estate business in San Jose. Mr. Owen has taken the agency for this section of the extensive Tapscott properties adjoining the factory district of Richmond and will devote himself to the exploitation of this tract.

The people of San Mateo county owe a debt of gratitude to Henry Ward Brown for his efforts in defeating the so-called annexation bill during the final hours of the legislature last Monday. A tremendous effort was made to rush the bill through the assembly at the last moment by the San Francisco representatives. Assemblyman Henry Ward Brown, who is always on the alert, blocked proceedings and mustered his forces, defeating defeating the bill by a substantial majority. Mr. Brown made a splendid record in the legislature that has just adjourned, by his championing of measures that were commended by the people and helping to defeat bills that were termed "freak measures."

THE THIRD PARTY.

The fact should never be lost sight of that there must of necessity be three parties to a labor dispute: the laborers or labor organization involved, the employer or employers of that labor, and the general public.

If the third party—the public—was more often taken into consideration, these disputes would be sooner settled. And it is because the general public, the third party, is most vitally concerned that neither of the two other parties can successfully contend against what the public, or third party deems the merits of the contention.

The influence of a strike may permeate every department of activity in a community or a nation, and it is possible for the public to be so vitally interested that its interests are paramount to those of the contending parties. Because this is so, what may be called a sympathetic strike never assumes extended proportions, because thorugh its extension every avenue of industary is tied up and suffering for those not parties of interest to the strike invariably results.

When there is a disagreement or contention between capital and labor, so called, it is wisdom on the part of both to take into consideration the effect upon the general public. Self interest will prompt both parties to settle their differences amicably before endangering the weakening of their cause through the incurrence of public disapproval.

LOOKING BEFORE HE LEAPS.

President Wilson has ordered Secretary of Commerce Redfield to examine the books of manufacturing potteries in this country in order to "learn if there is any basis for the present representations that the tariff bill, if it becomes a law, will bring ruin to those industries." The making of pottery, fostered by a protective tariff, has become an important industry in New Jersey, and the President finds he can no longer withstand the protests pouring in upon him from manufacturers, many of whom are personally known to him, and some of whom belong to his own party.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield is said to be deeply versed in the study of tariffs. He has been called by admirers in his party, "a human encyclopedia" on the subject, and has himself been negaged in the manufacture of iron and steel tools and forgings. He must know the difference between American and foreign wages and he should have an opinion as to the possibility of maintaining the American standard of living when protective duties are removed and the policy of protection cast out as unconstitutional as well as pernicious. He should not at all events, be merely a scholastic theorizer on political economy. He has been an employer of American working forces and dealt practically with materials.

The progress of the manufacture of pottery in this country has been highly creditable, but the business has been only reasonably profitable. It is an admitted fact that American workmen in that branch receive much higher pay than those of Europe. Why not investigate, the President is asked. Why not, indeed.

Realty Force Announced.

A. L. Lowe has been appointed by the Redwood City Realty Company to take charge of its branch office near the depot. Mr. Lowe is a hustler and will make good in his new field of action. G. W. Johnson, an experienced real estate man, will have charge of the San Francisco office. He resides in Wellesley Park and is a commuter. The main office in the Sequoia building on Main street will be presided over by C. G. Landscheit, general manager of the concern. The company is now in a position to attend to all business intrusted to it. The courteous treatment, honest dealing and able management is sure to bring the concern a large volume of business.

Guardianship Contest Ended.

The guardianship proceedings, begun some weeks ago in the Superior Court by Mrs. Mozart to secure possession of her grandson, Carl Edwin Schilling, were resumed yesterday. Many witnesses were examined to show the unfitness of the father of the boy, Carl Schilling, to act as the guardian. At the close of the day's proceedings the court intimated that the plaintiff would have to make a better showing or the court would be compelled to give the custody of the boy to his father. The child's mother is dead and he has been in charge of the grandmother. The case went over until May 23.

The Charity Hayward estate was distributed in the Superior Court yesterday by Judge Buck. The final account of W. J. Dingee, as executor of the will of Alvinza Hayward was settled and allowed. The petition for distribution was taken under submission by the court. A claimant represented by Judge Hebbard objected to the distribution. Garret, McEnerney made a strong appeal to have the vast estate distributed but the court finally took the matter under advisement.

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Picked Up By Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

SAN BRUNO NOTES.

The Federated Improvement Clubs at their last meeting decided that the mass meeting called for next Thursday evening, May 22d, at Carpenters' hall, will be the last, and the next step taken will be legal preparations to hold an election. The meeting will be conducted by local people and any question asked will be answered. All who are opposed to incorporation are invited to give their reasons, as this is a campaign of education so far as the Clubs are concerned. Data from the books of the county auditor will be presented, showing the amount of money the district will have at its disposal under incorporation. San Bruno has the reputation of being progressive, by our neighbors along the peninsula. Let us pack the hall; and if no good argument is presented against incorporation, then the progressive spirit of a determined people to lift itself from the apathy of a sleeping giant to a wideawake community, to take its place with other incorporated towns along the peninsula, should prevail. Attend the meeting. If in doubt, submit your questions. After being convinced, boost for the only method that will put San Bruno in the front ranks as a town of which we will have occasion to be proud.

Quite a number of people attended the Chamorita at Halfmoon Bay last Saturday and Sunday. Many are in the habit of attending each year. They had a splendid time and enjoyed the barbecue. The younger set declared the dance just splendid, and they have written their names for future anniversaries.

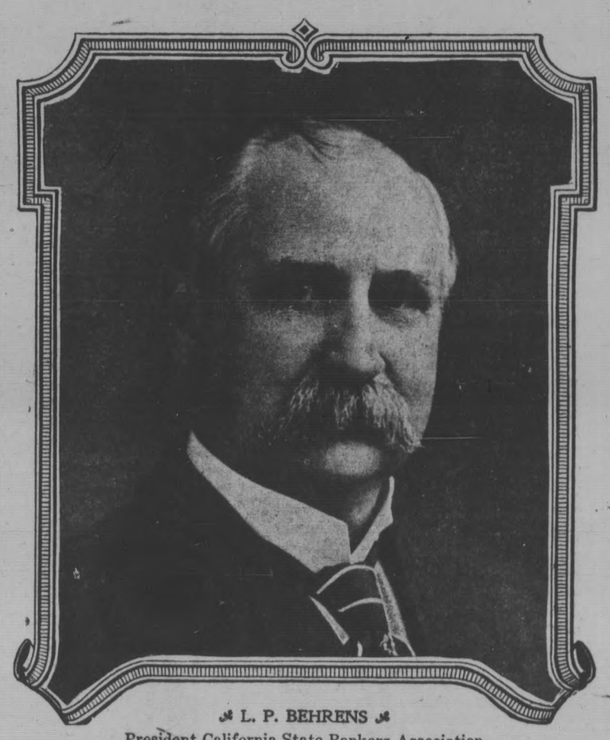
STATE FINANCIERS HONOR LOCAL BANK PRESIDENT

L. P. Behrens, of the First National Bank, Chosen for Chief Executive by State Bankers Association.



L. P. BEHRENS
President California State Bankers Association.

At the annual convention of the the California State Bankers Association, held this week at San Diego, L. P. Behrens, cashier of the First National Bank and president of the San Mateo County Savings Bank of this city was elected president of the Association, an organization comprising representatives of nearly every banking institution of any importance in the State. In the selection of one of its leading citizens to this important post, the bankers of the state have not only paid a marked compliment to Mr. Behrens personally, but have accorded a just recognition to the splendid standing of Redwood City and San Mateo county in the financial and commercial interests of this section of the state.

That this recognition of Mr. Behrens' executive ability should have been accorded by the bankers of the state is not a matter of surprise to residents of this city who are familiar with the history of the splendid progress of the two financial institutions in which he has been the guiding spirit since their first organization, nearly a quarter of a century ago. Started with modest aspirations and with but comparatively moderate capital, at a time when this city made no pretense to either financial or commercial prominence, the First National Bank, with its affiliated concern, the San Mateo County Savings Bank, under his public spirited, but at the same time conservative, direction have constantly grown until today they represent a combined capital of more than a million and a half dollars, are generally recognized as the strongest home banking institution in the county, and have been a prominent factor in its business and industrial progress.

In traits of personal character, few men could be found better fitted to fill the important position which he has thus been called to occupy. With a splendid executive ability, he is endowed with high ideals of business integrity and a keen insight into human character and motives. Always public spirited, he brings to any work an energy and determination which of necessity must insure success, and it is to his valuable assistance that Redwood City today owes much of its progress. Always a believer in local development, Mr. Behrens has ever stood ready to support every worthy enterprise, and in his management of the local banks has lent every assistance consistent with legitimate banking methods to the development of the industries of the city. To the advancement of its public affairs he has given freely of his time and abilities, taking active interest in every movement for the improvement of its business and social interests.

LOCALS STILL LEAD IN BASEBALL VICTORIES.

Redwood won again last Sunday, this time defeating the Columbia Outfitters by a scorer of 3 to 1. Keating struck out seven and allowed seven hits besides securing a three bagger for himself. The hidden ball trick was pulled off by Shortstop Kendal of the locals, much to the amusement of the fans. The work this year of the local team is of a high standard and good games are put up against fast city teams. Next Sunday the Cordage Company will be taken on. This team intends to break Redwood's winning streak, so watch the fur fly.

Sunday morning the Boys' Club easily defeated Menlo Park on the local field by a score of 14 to 5. Chaves let Menlo down with but five hits. All of the Boys' Club got one or more hits off of the Menlo twirler. The game was featured by a spectacular stop by Winter of a hot one right off the bat of one of the Menlo players. Fitzpatrick celebrated his return to the game by catching a good game for six innings and getting a hit which helped in the scoring.

Next Sunday at 10 o'clock the club boys will play the San Bruno Juniors on the local field. As quite an expense will be entailed in bringing this team down the price of admision will be 15 cents. The style of ball now being put up by the boys is worth far more than the price asked. A good crowd should go out and take in the game.

Later a list of those who have contributed toward securing suits and other apparatus for the club's team will be published, along with the amounts donated.

DRUNKEN AUTOMOBILISTS RUN DOWN RIDER

Fred Zimmerman was struck by an automobile Saturday and miraculously escaped with his life. He was riding a bicycle and was near the Finger bridge when he saw the machine approaching. The driver was handling it very carlessly, and Zimmerman to get out of danger's way got off his wheel and stood on the roadside. The driver deliberately turned the machine towar him and he was struck and rendered unconscious. There were four men in the automobile, evidently drunk. Instead of stopping to render what assistance they could they took on speed and hurried away.

Zimmerman lay on the roadside until he was found by a lady who helped him into her buggy and took him to San Carlos. From that place he phoned to the sheriff, but as he could not positively tell the number of the automobile it is doubtful if the perpetrators of the outrage will ever be caught and punished as they deserve.

Zimmerman's wheel was wrecked and he was badly cut up but fortunately had no bones broken.

Water Supply For Country Club

C. B. Barton on Tuesday completed an artesian well on the McEvoy tract for the Menlo Country Club. The well is 135 feet deep and, when tested, furnished 3500 gallons per hour without any noticeable reduction of the supply. A contract has been let to Daniel Flynn of this city for digging the ditch and laying the pipe line to the club house, a distance of two miles, and Jos. Ahlert of Menlo Park will install an automatic pumping system. The Country Club has gone to considerable expense to secure a water supply, having had three other wells bored to a depth of 160 feet, 168 feet and 270 feet respectively, in tracts near the club property, but none of them came up to expectations. The well on the McEvoy tract is expected to furnish sufficient water for all the club's needs.

State Highway Near This City.

The Federal Construction Company turned the first sod Monday on the County road in the building of the State highway south from this city. Work commenced at Five Points and the road is closed as far as the Selby lane, being the first section of the company's contract which extends to Mountain View. The roadway will be constructed of a concrete base with asphalt surface, twenty feet wide, each side of which will be of oiled macadam. The roadway being torn up for a sub-base is hard to penetrate and heavy traction engines are required in the work.

SANTA CLARA CHERRY BOOSTERS VISIT REDWOOD.

"Cheer up, cherries will soon be ripe. Come to Santa Clara and get some."

The above is the slogan of a live aggregation of Santa Clara businessmen who came to town yesterday forenoon with a brass band and paraded the main streets, scattering literature inviting Redwood City to attend the great cherry carnival to be held at that city from the 20th to the 24th instant.

The visitors came in a special train and stopped off at all of the towns on the peninsula and San Francisco. They crossed the bay and returned home by way of Niles, delivering their message to the east-bay cities.
